Thaifood

Once considered exotic, Thai cuisine is today one of the most popular cuisines in the world. In 2011 a number of its signature dishes made it onto the list of the "World's 50 Most Delicious Foods" – a worldwide online poll of 35,000 people by CNN Travel. Thailand had more dishes on the list than any other country: Tom Yam Goong, Pad Thai, Som Tam, Massaman Curry, Green Curry, Thai fried rice and Moo Nam Tok.

Thai cooking is not about simplicity, but rather intricacy. Thai cooking places emphasis on lightly and freshly prepared dishes with strong herbal components and a spicy edge. The juxtaposition of sweet, sour, salty, bitter and hot is a complex interplay of the fundamental taste senses which can be found throughout a meal or in just a single dish.

But we do not only pay attention to how a dish tastes; we consider all parts of the meal as a whole. We are also concerned with balance, detail, variety, colour, texture, appearance, aroma and the medicinal benefits of local Thai ingredients which promote good health.

We welcome you to Hong Far Garden & Restaurant and hope you enjoy a real and authentic Thai experience with us.
